

I am a financial supporter of K-Love radio in Grand Junction, CO. My family and I listen to this Christian radio station often and it supplies an important message to all of us. We do not have any similar stations in our area that provides the music and message.